

Ancient Star Nation Prophecies are coming true ... 2009...

For ten days in June 1996, the Yankton Sioux Reservation on the windswept high plains of South Dakota was a gathering place for indigenous tribal leaders from around the globe and hundreds of Native and Euro-American listeners. The occasion was the Star Knowledge Conference and Sun Dance, convoked by Lakota (Sioux) spiritual leader Standing Elk in response to a vision. The vision showed that Native American spiritual knowledge about the Star Nations (extraterrestrials) was to be shared. This Conference also fulfilled ancient Hopi and Lakota prophecies. Spiritual shamans from the Plains tribes (Lakota, Oglala, Dakota, Blackfoot, Nakota) were joined by spokespersons from the Eastern (Iroquois, Ojibwa, Seneca and Choctaw) and Southwest (Hopi, Yaqui and Mayan) tribes. In addition, the chief Maori shaman from New Zealand came from the southern end of the world, as well as a spokeswoman for the Sammi (Laplander) people from above the Arctic Circle. They came because they had seen signs occurring now which had been predicted by ancient prophecies. These signs signified to them that the time had come to speak openly about their most closely-held oral traditions. These traditions include their origin from the stars, the influence of Star People visitors on the formation of their culture and their spiritual beliefs and ceremonies, and the imminent return of these Star Nations.

Unprecedented as this gathering was, further precedent was set when Standing Elk, in a published announcement with apology to all Elders, declared that this sacred knowledge "is to be shared with our brothers of the four directions", (the entire non-Native World). Additionally, he invited world-famous Euro/American experts on extraterrestrials to also speak at this gathering of elders. Among those speaking were such notables as former NATO intelligence Sgt.-Major Bob Dean, Harvard Professor John Mack, MD, author Whitley Strieber, CSETI assistant director Martin Keller, former Acting Finnish Surgeon-General Rauni Kilde, MD, Professor Leo Sprinkle, Ph.D., ET research psychologist Richard Boylan, Ph.D., Professor Courtney Brown, Ph.D., Italian stigmatic-experiencer Giorgio Bongiovanni, German researcher Michael Hesemann, former CIA paranormal operatives Dea Martin and Darrel Sims, contactees Marilyn Carlson and Randolph Winters, and others.

As a peripheral result of this event, a unique and solitary Chinupa (Sacred Native Pipe) was commissioned and put forth to find the chosen carrier. In March 2009, the pipe was gifted to David (The Oracle) Pilz, in Spruce Grove Alberta, Canada, and he thus began a month long protocol of ceremonial cleansing, fasting, native naming and ceremonial initiations. In April 2009, at the Chilliwack, British Columbia Pow Wow, David Pilz received his native name by Rene Peters, while the descendants of numerous ancient bloodlines attended and participated in the ceremony. The direct descendant of Maggie Black Kettle (White Buffalo Calf Woman, Anton George and his family stand as witnesses to the naming, while the fasting ceremonies, the birthing of the Star Nation Chinupa and the ceremonial gifting of a Shamanic Spirit Whistle to David Pilz, (aka White Star), took place on the Lummi Reserve, Lummi Wa, USA.

In accordance with ancient prophesy, the required events have now happened that herald in this new era; including specific planetary alignments, the birthing of three white buffalo calves, and the coming of a Star Person to champion the new era of red and white working together. The many elders, natives and Métis who know David (The Oracle) Pilz and his long history of native interactions and support are convinced that there are few others that would suite the prophetic criteria so well, and most certainly so when we look at the fact that David has been speaking, teaching and instructing on Indigo's, Crystallines, StarNations and Rainbow Children for over a decade, including the creation of a unique lemurian pyramid nature resort (OmHaven.org) right next to one of BC's largest Native Reserves and plans to soon create yet another near Lummi Island, USA.

When asked how he felt about becoming a prophetic historical figure, David Pilz answered "I am accustomed to being that unique person that influences positive change for others, and I take the greatest pride in myself for helping others to live their own lives in a purposeful and conscious manner. When I asked 'why me' to my native friends who initiated me as 'White Star' they unanimously replied that as "The Oracle" I have already been 'walking the walk' for many years through my career, my personal associations and my spiritual life, and now I can look forward to having the tools to further expedite that journey. I am now more aware than ever that often in the case of historical figures, they were merely ordinary people like me doing extraordinary things. I'll continue to remain focused on my goals while allowing others to keep score as it all unfolds".

David and his team are now planning some media events, a lengthy educational tour to connect, teach and learn with the many native and aboriginal tribes found globally, plus publishing a new book about the unique journey that inevitably led to the birth of White Star.
